

To-Day and To-Morrow.

Don't tell me of to-morrow.
Give me the man who will say
That when a good deed is to be done
I will do it to-day.
We may all command the present,
If we will only do it to-day.
But repentance is the phantom
Of a part that comes too late.
Don't tell me of to-morrow.
There is much to do to-day.
That can never be accomplished
If we throw the hours away.
Every moment has its duty,
Who, the future can foretell,
Takes on this frail earth,
A moment gives it birth.
A moment gives it birth.

Better Than Gold.

Better than grandeur, better than gold,
Than rank and title a thousand fold,
Is a healthy body, a mind at ease,
And simple pleasures that always please.
A heart that can feel for a neighbor's woe,
And share his joys and his gentle glow,
With sympathies large enough to enfold
All men as brothers, is better than gold.
Better than gold is a conscience clear,
Though tolling for bread in a humble sphere;
Doubly blest with content and health,
Untried by the last of care and wealth,
Lowly living and lofty thought,
Adorn and ennoble a poor man's lot;
For man and morals and Nature's plan,
Are the genuine test of a gentleman.

Better than Gold.

Better than gold is the sweet repose
Of the soul that will when it's alone;
Better than gold is the peace of sleep,
And the calm that drops from his slumbers deep.
Bringing sleeping draughts to the downy bed
Where luxury pillows his aching head,
His simpler palate, labor, deems
A shorter road to the land of dreams.
Better than gold is a thinking mind
That, in the realm of books and mind
A treasure surpassing Australian ore,
And lives with the great and good of yore.
The sage's lore, and the poet's lay,
The glories of empires, pass away;
The world's great drama will thus unfold
And yield a pleasure better than gold.

Better than Gold.

Better than gold is a peaceful home,
Where all the friends of charity come;
The shrine of love and the haven of life,
Hallowed by mother, or sister, or wife,
However humble the house may be,
Or tried by sorrow, with Heaven's decree,
The blessings that no war can touch or sold,
And center here, are better than gold.

General Items.

The rule of Saturday night and Sunday was quite general throughout the State.

A splendid silver bearing ledge has been discovered on a mountain between the Santa Anita and Azusa ranches, in the vicinity of Los Angeles.
Two hundred pairs of barrels have been filled with flour at Starr's mill, Vallejo. If they give satisfaction, they will not be used except for export.
Three of the Black Hills party, who recently had property destroyed by the military, have sued the Government officers who destroyed their property for $25,000.
The Dental Association, says the Post, with wonderful speed and unanimity agreed that $5 an hour was only a fair remuneration for operating on refractory grinders.
A violent storm passed over France recently destroying life and property and causing a total suspension of business. The loss to the city of Paris alone, is estimated at $1,000,000 francs.
There has been a terrible earthquake in New Grenada. The destruction was the greatest in the valley of Cuzco, on the Mexican frontier. It is said 16,000 lives were destroyed by the calamity.
There will be two new moons during the month of August—one on the 1st, and the other on the 30th of the month. This is a very unusual occurrence and has not transpired since 1868.
A car load of machinery was received in California a few days since, from the California Pest Company, the location of whose operations is on Venice Island, about twenty-five miles below Stockton.
The figures produced by Mr. Phelps in his last speech show that while the cost of the State Government under Stanford in 1862 was but $1,467,882 under him in 1874 it was $2,715,360, or considerably more than twice as much.
As there was no choice of Governor of New Hampshire on the popular vote on the 9th of March, the matter was settled, after three months' delay, by the Legislature in joint convention electing the Republican candidate, Fessenden C. Cheever.
The new bridge across the North Fork of the American river at what is familiarly known as the Rice crossing, on the road from Colfax to Iowa Hill, is all completed. It is said to be a fine structure, built with all the modern improvements for safety and durability.
The earthquakes that have succeeded to famine in Asia Minor have been very severe, and dispatch posts the killed at over two thousand; and we are led to infer that, though these lives were not destroyed in any densely populated town, several villages were razed.
One of the largest copper deposits in England says the English market will soon have to look to the United States for copper, and regards Lake Superior as the place to obtain the supply. He thinks the miners of that region will get control over the copper market of the world.
The Fort Scott Monitor claims that the 20,000,000 prairie chickens and quail sent to market from Kansas last year would have devalued at least 60,000,000 grasshoppers had they been left unmolested, and urges the people to prevent the slaughter of these birds this season.
The Constitution of New Hampshire contains a religious proscription clause. No person is eligible to the office of Governor, or Senator, or Representative unless he is of the Protestant religion. At various times attempts have been made to strike out the proscription clause, but they have failed.
The Democracy of Pennsylvania are sanguine of victory, they assure their fellow-Democrats of all the other states that they are prepared to meet the foe on his own ground, and count with certainty on defeating him as a forerunner of the victory that is to give the country a Democratic President in 1876.
A few days ago a sheep range near Summit Lake, at the head of the San Joaquin River, a couple of grizzlies got into a corral with a lot of sheep, and two men—William Reid and William Cartwright—who were sleeping nearby, were badly mangled while attempting to defend the sheep. It was reported that the grizzlies had killed the men, but that they died from the effects of their wounds.
The old engine house at Harper's Ferry, in which John Brown and his party were stored and captured, is used by an undertaker as a place for the storage of coffins. AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral!
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.
The few compositions, which have won for this medicine a world-wide reputation, and become household words, are not only one, but many nations, and have extraordinary virtues. Persons who have secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as AYER'S Cherry Pectoral, it is a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cure of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and all the diseases of the Throat and Lungs, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded. If the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have a bottle of this medicine, for its prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even death, are avoided by its timely use. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will keep it by them for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR!
—FOR—
RESTORING GRAY HAIR
—TO ITS—
Natural Vitality and Color!
Advancing years, sickness, care, and anxiety, and appointment, and hereditary predisposition, all tend to thin the hair, and give it a faded, yellow, or gray color. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; it often restores the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. This healthy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stabilized; thin hair becomes thick and faded or gray hair resumes their original color. As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.
